As a Wealth Advisor, Mark serves as a wealth management resource to business owners and executives, assisting them in making proactive, personal financial decisions.

Mark graduated from Creighton University's College of Business Administration with a BSBA in Finance and Economics in 1993. Mark has been with Carson Wealth since August 1998 and has his Certified Financial Planner™ certification. Prior to becoming a wealth advisor in 2005, Mark was a Team Leader at Carson Wealth, overseeing the areas of client marketing, portfolio updates, trading and research. Mark is a member of the Financial Planning Association (FPA) and Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA). He is also a volunteer for the Nebraska Gold Association.

Mark and his wife, Jill, have been married since August 2003. They have two wonderful children, Lauren and Jack. Mark's passions include spending time with his family and friends, playing golf, Creighton University and his church.
